Master in Music Composition, New York University

COMPOSER'S BIOGRAPHY

Ian Ng's music has been described by The New York Times as "invigorating" with "intricate rhythms"; and by The Financial Times as having "a solid rhythmic grounding". Mr. Ng graduated from New York University with a Master in Music Composition. He won the American Prize, Morton Gould Young Composer Award, and Robert Avalon International Music Composition Competition. His works have been performed in the US, Japan, Canada, Australia, Spain, Israel, Brazil, the Netherlands, Korea, Taiwan, Hong Kong, Vietnam and Mexico, and presented in prestigious venues such as Lincoln Center, New York City Center, the Joyce Theatre and Carnegie Hall. Ng has studied with Julia Wolfe, Herschel Garfein, Jorge Grossmann and Rand Steiger. He presented his first opera in the Spring of 2017 with the support of NYC Department of Cultural Affairs and New York State Council on the Arts.
